The Treasurer shall give a report on the financial status of the club at the annual meeting and monthly meetings, and if so requested, at any other meeting of the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall keep orderly books representing the historical and current financial status of the club. Further, the Treasurer should ensure an annual review of the books and inventory list be accomplished by a non-related member of the club. No obligation, debt or other liability shall be incurred by the Treasurer or other officers without the specific approval of the Board of Directors, or by majority vote of the club membership.

E. Newsletter Publisher - The publisher of the club's newsletter shall be elected concurrently and serve the same term with other officers. It is the publisher's responsibility to ensure that a monthly newsletter containing recently completed and upcoming club activities, informational articles about club members and other stories or reports on Corvette or club-related subjects is sent via email if possible, or hard copies mailed to members in a timely manner. Publisher may enlist and solicit help with content from any source, whether inside the club or not and clearly credit any other sources, especially when quoting directly.

F. Appointed Webmaster - The webmaster shall bear all responsibility for maintaining and improving the club's web site and ensure periodical fees are paid promptly so as to maintain availability to the general public. Design and functions of the web site shall be approved by the club officers at the same time said officers review, update and approve the club bylaws. Expected functions include links to businesses/vendors who do business with and support the club, a calendar of upcoming events as far forward as practical, contact information for club officers, the latest club newsletter, information and pictures if possible, of recent past events, a brief statement of our history and purpose and encouraging information on joining the club.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1 - APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES

The President shall appoint such committees as he/she finds desirable from time to time and shall outline the duties and responsibilities of such committees. All reports or action taken by a committee must be voted by a majority of the entire committee. In addition to the authority granted above, certain standing committees, as set forth shall be appointed annually by the Vice President.

SECTION 2 - ACTIVITIES

The activities of the SCCC/SC3 shall consist of planned trips, social gatherings, and events for Primary members, Enthusiast/Honorary members, and guests as coordinated by the Activities Committee and other members appointed from time to time by them.

ARTICLE VII

SECTION 1 - FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year shall be from January 1 to December 31.

ARTICLE VIII
